Acknowledgement

It is a great pleasure to acknowledge an enormous debt to Professor Muhammad Aslam, Central University of Kashmir, whose careful and insightful comments were of inestimable value throughout the process of writing. I acknowledge the generous help of Mr Arshad Andrabi, Advocate, J&K High Court Srinagar, for providing the different legal documents, which helped me to find the best illustrations for exploring legal English. I was very fortunate to have had the family friends, Mr Sheshi NiJhon and Mr Sanjeev Kumar at New Delhi who helped me in bringing together a valuable collection of legal texts from different quarters. I would like to thank Mr S Sajad Salfi, who computerized the manuscript with accuracy and good humour. Finally, I am especially grateful to my husband, Malik Iqbal, as in the light of his enormous obligations in his own career, his personal interest, enthusiasm and encouragement are more special to me. Our children, Urba and Anzar, have been growing up assuming that my working on this book is just a normal part of family life. They do not know how much they deserve my thanks.
