

FOREWORD

Commendable are those who, by dint of hard work, efficiency and intellectual excellence, contribute in any field for the benefit of the deserving at large.

Labour Class is the backbone of development process. Various laws in place provide for their rights, safety, health, welfare and protection. Enactments, Rules and Bye Laws in force sometimes due to inadvertence are lost sight of, as a result thereof, the guaranteed rights of such class get jeopardized.

Mr. Dinesh Singh Chauhan, Advocate deserves to be applauded for having successfully undertaken strenuous efforts to assemble all the Acts, Rule and By Laws. This compilation is advantageously in the form of "Manual of Labour Laws" in Jammu and Kashmir, (in 4 Vols.) (Second Ed. 2014). Appreciable work done by Mr. Chauhan shall be useful. In my estimation, it must receive appreciation from the members of Bar, the Bench and all other concerned, with the welfare and protection of rights of Labour Class.

Publisher of Jay Kay Law Reporter Pvt. Ltd. is known for its contribution in the field of law. Untiring efforts of Shri Sunil Gupta for updating compilation of law then its publishing too deserves commendation.
